

2009 OUTDOOR CHRISTMAS LIGHTING CONTEST

Crescens Lodge #33, Knights of Pythias, 'Tis The Season Gifts and the Courier-Times proudly presents the 20th Annual Outdoor Christmas Lighting Contest for all of New Castle and Henry County!

This year's contest will feature six divisions: The City, the County, The Champion of Champions for all former City Champions, the Champion of Champions for all former County Champions, the Merchant's division for all businesses in Henry County and the new Pythian Division for Knights of Pythias members and their auxiliaries to compete against each other in.

Prizes will again be plaques plus $25 for first place, $15 for 2nd and $10 for third the City & County divisions. The Champion of Champions will be $25, winner take all plus awards for the first three places. There is a special traveling plaque for the Merchant winner. A special internal package has been set up for the Pythian winner.

The Knights of Pythias have selected three "secret celebrities" from the area to judge the contest who have no affiliation with any entrant, the Courier-Times or the Knights of Pythias. They shall remain anonymous. Their decision will be final. City entries must reside within the city limits of New Castle while County entries must reside outside the city limits of New Castle but within the borders of Henry County. Lights will be judged during the week of December 6 thru 12 and lights must be on from 6 to 10 each evening that week.

Awards will be handed out at the Festival Awards Ceremony held in the New Castle Library Auditorium, 376 S 15th St, New Castle on December 27th at 2:00 pm beginning with a luncheon for all festival participants. ENTRIES MUST be received by December 1st. None accepted after that date!
